

The author,
Stefan Engel

Stefan Engel was born in 1954. As a trained mechanic he worked in several large factories. He is a free publicist today. He has been politically active since 1968 and has exercised leading functions in the Marxist-Leninist and working-class movement in Germany since 1975. More and more he has also taken on tasks in the coordination of the international revolutionary and working-class movement. His most important theoretical contributions are contained, inter alia, in the books, The Struggle Over the Mode of Thinking in the Working-Class Movement and Class Struggle and the Struggle for the Liberation of Women.

The book, Dawn of the International Socialist Revolution, follows up on the topic of his best-known book to date, Twilight of the Gods – Götterdämmerung over the "New World Order".

“By unleashing the international productive forces, the reorganization of international production has ushered in the Götterdämmerung of international finance capital. At the beginning of its crusade around the globe, international finance capital still reveled in fantasies of omnipotence and dreams of eternity. Today, their mood is one of general hangover: the crisis-proneness of the social system proves irreversible. But the turn of a new era already looms on the horizon; the dawning of the international socialist revolution becomes visible. And yet, the old masters will not make way voluntarily, even if they drag the whole of humanity with them into capitalist barbarism.

The decision for the international revolution must be made by the workers and the masses themselves. To help them make this decision and together with them sweep every obstacle out of the way so that they can fulfill their historical mission – that, in a nutshell, sums up the tasks of the Marxist-Leninists in the whole world today.”

Comments on the book

“This book by Stefan Engel is remarkably intelligent. It is visionary. In a rousing, intelligent language it shows the way to the revolutionary overcoming of the cannibalistic world order. Stefan Engel deserves my solidarity and admiration.”

Prof. Jean Ziegler, bestselling author and longtime UN Special Rapporteur on the Right to Food

“There are changes and developments in the structure of imperialism which the international proletariat must be very much aware of. ... Stefan Engel's book is the result of a deep and systematic study of the current period from a Marxist-Leninist standpoint. It opens up a debate which will be a great enrichment for the theoretical arsenal of the international proletariat, for the strategy and tactics of the proletarian international revolution, the building of Marxist-Leninist parties and the unity of the international revolutionary and Marxist-Leninist movement.”

Ludovico, Secretary General of the Marxist-Leninist Party of Peru

“Anyone who believes that our world and our lives are too good to be wasted through famine, environmental disasters, job destruction and unjust wars must not miss reading Dawn of the International Socialist Revolution. This book elaborates scientifically how and at which points Marxist-Leninists, workers and other working people and the oppressed can set about to defeat international finance capital. Dawn encourages, presents visions. It's grippingly and intelligibly written.”

Anne Pfisterer, Metalworkers' Union works council member, ThyssenKrupp Steel Europe

“It is with great pleasure that we publish the book Dawn of the International Socialist Revolution by Stefan Engel in continuation of the publication of his earlier book Twilight of the Gods – Gotterdammerung over the “New World Order” by us in March 2010. ...

The work envisages the urgent need for forging proletarian internationalism against internationalized finance capital through the global interaction of national and international class struggle.

As a contribution to the Marxist-Leninist literature pertaining to the contemporary world situation, it is our hope that the republishing of the book in India will deepen the debate and achieve more clarity on the laws of motion of finance capital in the latest phase of crisis-ridden imperialism.”
